

NURSES EDUCATION EVENT

Hologic cordially invites you to attend a half-day interactive workshop designed for operating theatre nurses on fluid management and hysteroscopy.

Presented by gynaecologists and specialists in minimally-invasive procedures, the workshop aims to enhance skills for managing and measuring patient fluid absorption during hysteroscopic surgery to avoid overload, while also improving knowledge around uterine cavity tissue removal techniques under direct vision.

Saturday, 24 August 2024 | 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM
Registration at 8:30 AM
